

Do Now

1. Take out your notes and homework

RP1 Week 8, Oct. 14, 2021

Unit - 1619 Project

Topic - 1619 Debate Part 1

The slide is decorated with stylized tropical leaves in orange and teal colors, positioned around the edges of the white central text area.

Mighty 9 Affirmation

Me: “I am.....”

You: “I am my past, my present,
and my future.”

Me: “This is...”

YOU: “This is my school, in my community, and I make it shine.”

Think Write Buckets

A beautiful house has been built.

Who do you want to meet? Why? Be Ready to share your response.

- A. The architect who designed it
- B. The construction worker who built it

Think Write Buckets 2

What do you or people in your community do on the 4th of July?

YWBAT evaluate the controversy over The 1619 Project.

by

comparing and contrasting
key claims about the history of America.

1619 Fast Facts

- Collection of journalism, poetry, and essays
- Focuses on the contributions of Black people
- Led by Nikole Hannah-Jones
- Has sparked controversy

CRT State Bans

- Laws have been passed in 8 states: Idaho, Iowa, New Hampshire, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas
 - Indoctrination task forces: Idaho and North Carolina
-

Set up Your Notes

1619 Opening Essay	1776 National Review Opinion

A cluster of stylized tropical leaves in shades of red, orange, and teal, with some leaves having holes, located in the top-left corner of the slide.

Read to Understand

- What does the essay say about the history of America?
- What details in history are mentioned?

JOT THESE DETAILS DOWN IN YOUR NOTES

Anything you don't understand - ask a question

A single teal leaf with several pointed lobes, located in the bottom-right corner of the slide.

When did America as a country begin?
Which one is more important?

LET'S DEBATE!!!!!!

In your group:

- Come up with 3-4 reasons why either 1619 or 1776 is more important
- Go over any details you don't understand
- Be ready to argue and be persuasive

Let's Debate -

Debaters	Everyone Else
<ul style="list-style-type: none">● 1 min to make opening argument● Be persuasive as possible	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Listen and pay attention for key details● Take notes on what they say and put on other side of the t-chart

The slide features a light beige background with a subtle, crumpled paper texture. It is decorated with stylized tropical foliage in the corners: orange and teal leaves on the left, and teal and red leaves on the right. The title "Let's Debrief" is centered in a bold, dark red font and underlined.

Let's Debrief

- What stood out to you about the debate?
- What questions do you have?

Let's Pause and Stamp our learning

What key claims are made about the history of the U.S.?

1619 Opening Essay

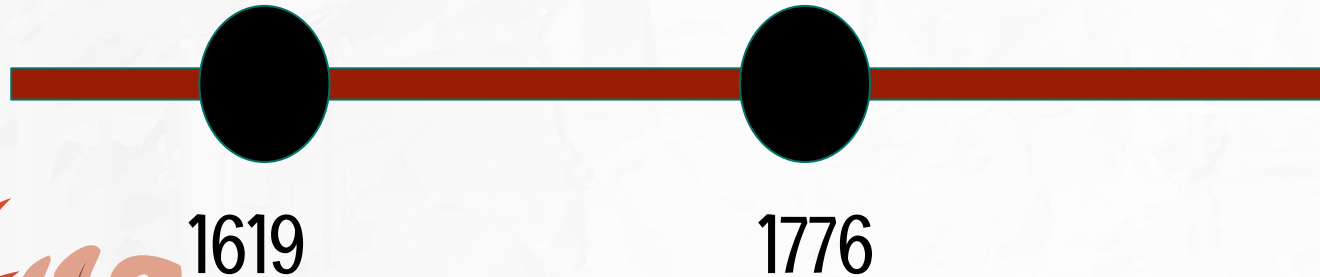

- Black people have perfected American democracy
- US founded on an ideal and lie
- Black people's protests paved the way for others
- 1619 is just as important as 1776

National Review Opinion

- 1776 is the start date
- Greatest day for human liberty
- Justification for the nation's Founding was based on rights of ALL men
- The Dec. of Ind. inspires others around the world

Why do you think The 1619 Project is so controversial? Why do you think there has been such a backlash?

Bryn Mawr and Gilman School

Read the parent's letter
What do they say about teaching race?

Think Write Buckets

What's the analogy I am making here related to 1619?

A beautiful house has been built.

Who do you want to meet? Why? Be Ready to share your response.

- A. The architect who designed it
- B. The construction worker who built it.

Exit Ticket

Open Schoology to today's folder.

Directions:

1. Write a 1-paragraph letter to Bryn Mawr and Gilman School
2. In your letter include the following:
 - Your response to the letter that was sent by parents
 - Your thoughts on The 1619 Project
 - Any concerns you have regard Black students at their school

Dear Parents, Guardians, Administration and Teachers of Bryn Mawr and Gilman School,