

Presentation Rubric.docx

Updated automatically every 5 minutes

Presentation Rubric

Categories	4	3	2	1
Information	Information is very organized. The presentation is logical and in sequential order.	Most of the information is organized. One or two notable errors.	Some of the information is presented in sequential order. Two or more notable errors.	Information is presented with no evidence of organization.
Spelling and Grammar	No misspelled words or grammatical errors.	The presentation has one or two misspelled words, but no grammatical errors.	The presentation has one or two misspelled words and one or two grammatical errors.	The presentation has multiple misspelled words and grammatical errors that distract.
Graphics	All graphics are appropriate and attractive for the content of the presentation.	There are one or two slides distract from the presentation.	Two or three slides are unrelated and do not support the presentation	Two or three slides are not attractive or do not support the premise of the presentation.
Originality	Presentation is authentic and student created. Three citations are presented	Most of the presentation is authentic with two citations.	The presentation is authentic with one citation.	The presentation has zero citation.