

Part 4: Culminating Fishbowl Discussion

Socratic Seminar / Fishbowl Rubric
Inside Fishbowl: Speaking
Number of comments: How often did you speak / respond / ask a question? Focus on your classmates. This is not a performance, it's a conversation. I promise! See rubric below for scoring.
No Comments 0 points	1 comment 2 points	2 comment 4 points	3 comment s 6 points	4+comments 8 points
Use of Textual Evidence: Cite evidence from "Background" notes & cited evidence to support claims.
Does not reference text 0 points	References text 2 points	Cites text x1 4 points	Cites text x2 6 points
Outside Fishbowl: Active listening + commenting on conversation
Number of comments: How often did you either comment on the conversation on the padlet or interject during an appropriate time in order to interact with the conversation? Appropriate interactions / respond: Ask questions, politely agree or disagree + explanation, provide positive feedback.
No Comments 0 points	1 comment 2 points	2 comment 4 points	3 comment s 6 points	4+comments 8 points
Outside Fishbowl: Written Response

Your response should be approximately one typed page. Choose one of the guiding questions and provide a response. Make sure to reference at least one text in your response and one comment from someone in the conversation.
The response does not exist. 0 points	The response is very basic and should be revised. 2 points	The response is sufficient. It maybe muddled or lack detail. 5 points	The response is clear, concise, and answers the question in an articulate way. 8 points
Does not reference text 0 points	References text 2 points	Cites text x1 4 points	Cites text x2 6 points
Inside & Outside Fischbowl: Courtesy, Empathy, & Respect
Students will receive full credit for inviting students into conversation, apologizing for missteps, if another student says something offensive, ask a clarifying question: What did you mean when you said... (4pts).
25 pts.			