SPARK Feedback

To give helpful writing feedback to your peers, provide feedback that is:

Specific - Comments are linked to specific words, phrases, or sentences

Ex) I am confused about who “they” is referring to in this sentence.

Prescriptive - The feedback provides ideas about how to make the writing better.

Ex) What if you started this paragraph with your main idea?

Actionable - The feedback leaves the peer knowing the steps to improve the writing.

Ex) This is confusing because I cannot follow your topic.

Referenced - The feedback references specific criteria for the assignment.

Ex) This paragraph does a good job of answering the project’s questions.

Kind - All comments are written in a kind and supportive way.

Ex) Can you please explain a little more about why you chose this photo?

	One day I went to the store to buy vegetables. I saw a crowd of people standing in front of a shop. I rushed to the spot to find out what was up there. I found that some people were fighting. I learnt that a lady had bought a purse from a fancy shop, but when she went home, she discovered that the store had sold her a fake purse.
