

¿Por qué deberían estar orgullosos de su historia los afroamericanos?
Why should Black Americans be proud of their story?"

Black Americans should be proud of their story because their ancestors fought even when it was hard. They created joy when it was only pain. And last of all they loved when people only hated.

