Frederick Douglass

Frederick Douglass

Legacy Project

Presented by: Sophia Lilly Rodriguez

Early life

Born: February 1818

From: Maryland

Douglass was of mixed race; mom was Native American and African and dad was European.

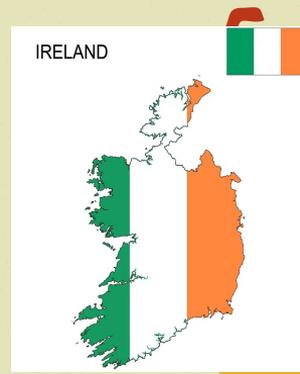

He was separated from his mother at birth.

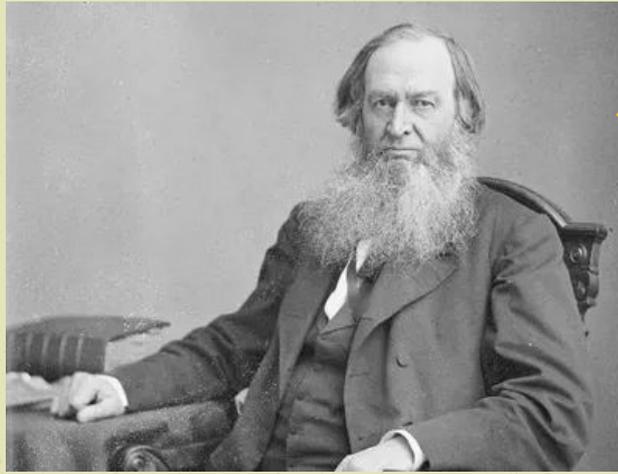

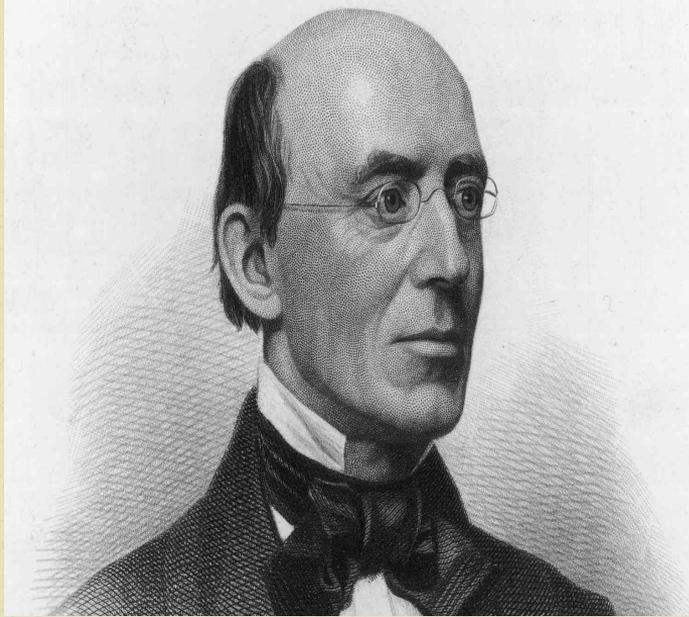

Achievements

- Douglass made an anti-slavery newspaper called “The North Star”
- Douglass helped Ireland to be free of the British government
- Douglass helped with the women right movement

William Lloyd Garrison; Douglass' Mentor

Gerrit Smith; Supported Douglass
in advocating for slaves to use all means necessary to escape from slavery

Abraham Lincoln; A honored friend of Douglass

"Once you learn to read,
you will be forever free."

-Frederick Douglass
1818-1895

He continued to push for equality and human rights until his death in 1895. This shows resistance because he kept writing in the newspaper for everyone's rights.

"Right is of no sex. Truth is of no color." Frederick Douglass
