Step 4: Use your sources to answer questions for your project

Questions: If your project is about a person (a biography)

- Who is the person? Write their full name including the maiden name for a married woman (a maiden name is the family name of the woman before she was married) Include any nicknames for the person.
- When was he/she born?
- When did he/she die?
- Where was he/she born? Name the place and tell about father, mother, brothers and sisters.
- Where did he/she live at the time of his/her achievements?
- What did he/she achieve?
- What other people were involved?
- What problems had to be overcome?
- Why is this person remembered?
- Is there something named after this person? Describe it.
- How is what he/she achieved affected others?

Questions: If your project is about a historical movement, law, or event

- What happened?
- Where did it begin?
- When did it begin?
- Why did it happen?
- Who were the key people involved?
- What are the key events related to it?
- Who did it help or hurt?
- What were the obstacles?
- What were the goals of this movement?
- Are there any misconceptions about this movement?
- Why is it historically significant ?
