

Radical Readers Survey

Dear Participant, Thank you for participating in The Ink and The Iron. Please answer the following questions in your own words. Thank you Veronica Jones Grant Awardee from the Pulitzer Center 1619 Impact Grant Program.

1. What is your name and age?

The year 1619 is significant as the arrival of the first enslaved Africans in English North America (Virginia) and the establishment of the first representative assembly in the colonies, marking the beginning of race-based bondage and democratic foundations that would profoundly shape American history

A large, bold, black serif font number '1619' is centered on a solid gray rectangular background.

2. Which part of The Ink and The Iron was most impactful to you?

Mark only one oval.

- ☐ What to the Slave is the Fourth of July? (intergenerational speech)
- ☐ Speaker 1 (Darren Palmer) The Declaration of Independence
- ☐ Speaker 2 (Demetrius Robinson) The US Constitution
- ☐ Speaker 3 (Keith Howell) The Emancipation Proclamation
- ☐ Lest we Forget exhibit (Gwen Ragsdale)
- ☐ Amistad Commission resources (Andrea Blair)

3. Please comment further on the speakers.

4. What does freedom mean to you?

5. What is democracy?

6. What is citizenship?

7. What do you know about the history of slavery in the United States?

8. What does it mean to be resilient?

9. How can you share the story of America, so that includes the stories of the people who were enslaved during its beginning?

10. What do you know about the history of the Indigenous people of this country?

11. Would you like to know more about programming like this? If so, leave your email below! Thank you.

This content is neither created nor endorsed by Google.

Google Forms