

Directions: Each time your partner does one of the following, place a tally mark in the box.

	Tallies	Required
Speaks in the Discussion		1 3
Refers to & Cite the Text		2 3
Response to Another Speaker		1 3
Does not Engage in Side Conversations		1
	Total	14 10
Post Discussion: What is the most interesting thing your partner said?	Agreeing and he added on to what he was saying with evidence
Post Discussion: What would you like to have said in the discussion?	I could've taken more initiative by asking to move to the next question

Post Socratic Seminar Reflection Prompts

1. How did you feel about the seminar?
2. If you changed your opinion during the discussion, what changed it?
3. Using your own knowledge on this topic or issue, create a question to start a seminar.
4. What is one point someone else said that you agree with?
5. What do you think should be done differently in the next seminar?
6. As a Socratic Seminar participant, which area of the process do you excel at?
7. As a Socratic Seminar participant, which area of the process will you work on for next time? Where's your opportunity for growth?
8. What new questions arose as a result of the discussion and debrief?

Directions: Each time your partner does one of the following, place a tally mark in the box.

	Tallies	Required
Speaks in the Discussion		1 3
Refers to & Cite the Text		1 3
Response to Another Speaker	    	1 3
Does not Engage in Side Conversations	did not engage in side conversation	1
	Total	3/4 <sup>4</sup> / <sub>10</sub>
Post Discussion: What is the most interesting thing your partner said?	The most interesting thing            Chand was very attentive when it came to responding and reacting.
Post Discussion: What would you like to have said in the discussion?	I could've gone back to prior lessons more.

Post Socratic Seminar Reflection Prompts

1. How did you feel about the seminar?
2. If you changed your opinion during the discussion, what changed it?
3. Using your own knowledge on this topic or issue, create a question to start a seminar.
4. What is one point someone else said that you agree with?
5. What do you think should be done differently in the next seminar?
6. As a Socratic Seminar participant, which area of the process do you excel at?
7. As a Socratic Seminar participant, which area of the process will you work on for next time? Where's your opportunity for growth?
8. What new questions arose as a result of the discussion and debrief?

Directions: Each time your partner does one of the following, place a tally mark in the box.

	Tallies	Required
Speaks in the Discussion		1 3
Refers to & Cite the Text		1 3
Response to Another Speaker		1 3
Does not Engage in Side Conversations		1
	Total 4	10
Post Discussion: What is the most interesting thing your partner said? An improvement could be citing more or referring more to texts	When Aaron talked about how racism won't ever end because people might teach their children to be racist
Post Discussion: What would you like to have said in the discussion?	I would have liked to talk about social media campaigns and boycotts. I could have let others talk more but I think I did good with information.

Post Socratic Seminar Reflection Prompts

1. How did you feel about the seminar?
2. If you changed your opinion during the discussion, what changed it?
3. Using your own knowledge on this topic or issue, create a question to start a seminar.
4. What is one point someone else said that you agree with?
5. What do you think should be done differently in the next seminar?
6. As a Socratic Seminar participant, which area of the process do you excel at?
7. As a Socratic Seminar participant, which area of the process will you work on for next time? Where's your opportunity for growth?
8. What new questions arose as a result of the discussion and debrief?

Directions: Each time your partner does one of the following, place a tally mark in the box.

	Tallies	Required
Speaks in the Discussion		1 3
Refers to & Cite the Text		1 3
Response to Another Speaker		1 3
Does not Engage in Side Conversations		1
	Total	<sup>4</sup> / 10
Post Discussion: What is the most interesting thing your partner said?	My partner spoke up and asked loud enough so everyone could hear
Post Discussion: What would you like to have said in the discussion?	I wish I brought up more about black people and the right for equality

Post Socratic Seminar Reflection Prompts

1. How did you feel about the seminar?
2. If you changed your opinion during the discussion, what changed it?
3. Using your own knowledge on this topic or issue, create a question to start a seminar.
4. What is one point someone else said that you agree with?
5. What do you think should be done differently in the next seminar?
6. As a Socratic Seminar participant, which area of the process do you excel at?
7. As a Socratic Seminar participant, which area of the process will you work on for next time? Where's your opportunity for growth?
8. What new questions arose as a result of the discussion and debrief?

Directions: Each time your partner does one of the following, place a tally mark in the box.

	Tallies	Required
Speaks in the Discussion		1/3
Refers to & Cite the Text		1/3
Response to Another Speaker		1/3
Does not Engage in Side Conversations		1
	Total	3/ 10 <sup>4</sup>
Post Discussion: What is the most interesting thing your partner said?	My partner spoke in dicussion and added onto the conversation.
Post Discussion: What would you like to have said in the discussion?	I could've spoke in the conversation.

Post Socratic Seminar Reflection Prompts

1. How did you feel about the seminar?
2. If you changed your opinion during the discussion, what changed it?
3. Using your own knowledge on this topic or issue, create a question to start a seminar.
4. What is one point someone else said that you agree with?
5. What do you think should be done differently in the next seminar?
6. As a Socratic Seminar participant, which area of the process do you excel at?
7. As a Socratic Seminar participant, which area of the process will you work on for next time? Where's your opportunity for growth?
8. What new questions arose as a result of the discussion and debrief?

Directions: Each time your partner does one of the following, place a tally mark in the box.

	Tallies	Required
Speaks in the Discussion		1x
Refers to & Cite the Text		1x
Response to Another Speaker		1x
Does not Engage in Side Conversations		1
	Total	1x 4
Post Discussion: What is the most interesting thing your partner said? what is something you your partner did well	One thing my Partner did that went well is Not engaging in Side Conversations and Tracking the Speakers
Post Discussion: What would you like to have said in the discussion?	I wish I could have delved about the large slave rebellions

Post Socratic Seminar Reflection Prompts

1. How did you feel about the seminar?
2. If you changed your opinion during the discussion, what changed it?
3. Using your own knowledge on this topic or issue, create a question to start a seminar.
4. What is one point someone else said that you agree with?
5. What do you think should be done differently in the next seminar?
6. As a Socratic Seminar participant, which area of the process do you excel at?
7. As a Socratic Seminar participant, which area of the process will you work on for next time? Where's your opportunity for growth?
8. What new questions arose as a result of the discussion and debrief?

Directions: Each time your partner does one of the following, place a tally mark in the box.

	Tallies	Required
Speaks in the Discussion		18
Refers to & Cite the Text		18
Response to Another Speaker		18
Does not Engage in Side Conversations		1
	Total	4/10
Post Discussion: What is the most interesting thing your partner said?	My partner talked and was engaged. He co-singled to what people said
Post Discussion: What would you like to have said in the discussion?	Queen Njinga & how she fought the Portuguese even after losing her land and creating peace

Post Socratic Seminar Reflection Prompts

1. How did you feel about the seminar?
2. If you changed your opinion during the discussion, what changed it?
3. Using your own knowledge on this topic or issue, create a question to start a seminar.
4. What is one point someone else said that you agree with?
5. What do you think should be done differently in the next seminar?
6. As a Socratic Seminar participant, which area of the process do you excel at?
7. As a Socratic Seminar participant, which area of the process will you work on for next time? Where's your opportunity for growth?
8. What new questions arose as a result of the discussion and debrief?

Directions: Each time your partner does one of the following, place a tally mark in the box.

	Tallies	Required
Speaks in the Discussion		1/3
Refers to & Cite the Text		1/3
Response to Another Speaker		1/3
Does not Engage in Side Conversations		1
	Total	1 1/3
Post Discussion: What is the most interesting thing your partner said?	He talked about black people fighting for their rights
Post Discussion: What would you like to have said in the discussion?	I wanted to talk about black women being underestimated

Post Socratic Seminar Reflection Prompts

1. How did you feel about the seminar?
2. If you changed your opinion during the discussion, what changed it?
3. Using your own knowledge on this topic or issue, create a question to start a seminar.
4. What is one point someone else said that you agree with?
5. What do you think should be done differently in the next seminar?
6. As a Socratic Seminar participant, which area of the process do you excel at?
7. As a Socratic Seminar participant, which area of the process will you work on for next time? Where's your opportunity for growth?
8. What new questions arose as a result of the discussion and debrief?