

Questioning History: What Do You Know About Slavery, and Why?

What do you know about slavery, and where does that information come from? Choose an educational resource to explore, such as a textbook, an assigned film, your school library, or a local museum. While you explore your chosen resource, use the following table to analyze it.

What information about slavery does this resource include?	1.
	2.
	3.
What information about slavery is missing?	1.
	2.
	3.
What is the tone of this resource?
Toward whom does this resource seem sympathetic? (Provide evidence.)
Would you recommend this resource as an educational tool? Why or why not?	